CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

*To the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia
Parliament Buildings
Victoria, British Columbia*

These fund statements are prepared to compare the actual operating results of the Consolidated Revenue Fund with the estimates of revenue and expenditure as presented by the annual Estimates and Budget of the government for the 1996/97 fiscal year. As with the annual Estimates, these fund statements do not include many of the significant financial activities of the Province which occur outside the Consolidated Revenue Fund. These additional activities occur in organizations and enterprises for which the government is responsible and which are to be included, along with the Consolidated Revenue Fund, in the Province's Summary Financial Statements.

To understand and assess the government's management of public financial affairs and resources as a whole, readers should refer to the Province's Summary Financial Statements.

I have audited the statement of financial position of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the Province of British Columbia as at March 31, 1997 and the statements of operations and of changes in cash and temporary investments for the year then ended, as presented on the expenditure basis of accounting described in note 1 to these statements. These fund statements are the responsibility of the government. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these fund statements based on my audit.

I conducted my audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that I plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. In the conduct of my audit, I have received all the information and explanations I have required.

AUDITOR GENERAL'S REPORT
CONSOLIDATED REVENUE FUND
PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA

Reservation

The government has recorded as assets of the Consolidated Revenue Fund the amounts described in the statement of financial position as "loans for the purchase of assets, recoverable through future appropriations". These loans do not have the necessary characteristics of assets, and should be accounted for as an expenditure of the Consolidated Revenue Fund of the period in which each loan was incurred. Similarly, the debt of government organizations guaranteed by the Province, the repayment of which depends on future appropriations, should be accounted for as a direct liability of the Consolidated Revenue Fund.

Had the above-noted loans been expensed and guaranteed debt been recorded as a direct liability of the Consolidated Revenue Fund, the net deficiency as at March 31, 1997 would increase by $6,198 million to $18,889 million (for 1996 by $5,892 million to $18,215 million), liabilities as at March 31, 1997 would increase by $702 million to $33,667 million (for 1996 by $823 million to $32,676 million), and net operating expenditure for the year ended March 31, 1997 would increase by $306 million to $674 million (for 1996 by $458 million to $827 million).

Opinion

I report in accordance with Section 10 of the Auditor General Act RSBC 1996 chapter 23. In my opinion, except for the effects of not expensing the loans and not recording the guaranteed debt, as referred to in the reservation paragraphs above, these fund statements present fairly the financial position of the Consolidated Revenue Fund as at March 31, 1997, and the results of its operations and the changes in its cash and temporary investments for the year then ended, in accordance with the stated accounting policies as set out in note 1 to these fund statements applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

This opinion does not relate to the information marked "expense basis" provided for the year ended March 31, 1997 in these statements. As stated in note 1, the information provided on the expense basis is for comparison purposes.

Statement of Responsibility for the Consolidated Revenue Fund Financial Statements of the Province of British Columbia

Responsibility for the integrity and objectivity of these financial statements of the Province of British Columbia rests with the government. The financial statements are prepared by the Comptroller General under the direction of the Treasury Board, pursuant to section 8.1 of the Financial Administration Act, in accordance with the government's stated accounting policies. The fiscal year of the government is from April 1 to March 31 of the following year.

To fulfill its accounting and reporting responsibilities, the government maintains systems of financial management and internal control which give due consideration to costs, benefits and risks. These systems are designed to provide reasonable assurance that transactions are properly authorized by the Legislative Assembly, are executed in accordance with prescribed regulations and are properly recorded. This is done to maintain accountability of public money and safeguard the assets and properties of the Province of British Columbia under government administration. The Comptroller General of British Columbia maintains the accounts of British Columbia, a centralized record of the government's financial transactions, and obtains additional information as required from ministries, agencies and Crown corporations to meet accounting and reporting requirements.

The Auditor General of British Columbia provides an independent opinion on the financial statements prepared by the government. The duties of the Auditor General in that respect are contained in section 7 of the Auditor General Act.

Annually, the financial statements are tabled in the Legislature as part of the Public Accounts, and are referred to the Standing Committee on Public Accounts of the Legislative Assembly. The Standing Committee on Public Accounts reports to the Legislative Assembly on the results of its examination together with any recommendations it may have with respect to the financial statements and accompanying audit opinions.

Approved on behalf of the Government of the Province of British Columbia:

ANDREW PETTER
Chair, Treasury Board

Notes to Consolidated Revenue Fund Financial Statements for the Fiscal Year Ended March 31, 1997

1. Significant Accounting Policies

(a) REPORTING ENTITY

These financial statements include the transactions and balances of the General Fund and the Natural Resource Community Fund (Special Fund) which combined are known as the Consolidated Revenue Fund. Separate Summary Financial Statements of the government are prepared which include the financial activities of the Consolidated Revenue Fund and government organizations and enterprises. (See Summary Financial Statements in Volume 1 of the Public Accounts.)

For purposes of these financial statements, the General Fund and any Special Funds of the government are presented as one Consolidated Revenue Fund, which is comprised of:

- General Fund—includes all transactions and balances of the government not otherwise earmarked by legislative action, including those of the Queen's Printer and the Purchasing Commission, special accounts and other statutory spending authorities; and
- Special Fund(s)—amounts set aside from the General Fund by special disposition of the Legislature.

(b) PRINCIPLES OF COMBINATION

The accounts of the General Fund are combined with the Special Fund after adjusting to conform with the accounting policies described below. Inter-fund revenue and expense/expenditure transactions are eliminated upon combination.

(c) BASIS OF ACCOUNTING AND SPECIFIC POLICIES

The government's Consolidated Revenue Fund Financial Statements are prepared in accordance with the accounting policies described below and, except as explained in Note 2, on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

BASIS OF ACCOUNTING

The annual Estimates and Budget of the government for fiscal 1996/97 were prepared on the expenditure basis. In order to present a full comparison to those documents these statements were prepared so as to present the current year and prior year actual numbers on the expenditure basis. For comparison purposes, the expense basis is provided for the current fiscal year only.

The difference between expenditure and expense basis for recording costs in these statements relates solely to the treatment of tangible capital assets.

On the expenditure basis, tangible capital assets are expensed as acquired and do not appear as a part of the assets on the Statement of Financial Position. Current year operating costs include only the costs of current year acquisitions of tangible capital assets.

On the expense basis, tangible capital assets acquired are reported on the Statement of Financial Position and the cost is amortized on the Statement of Operations over the useful life of the assets. Current year operating costs on the expense basis, therefore, include the relevant amortization expense for capitalized assets held during the fiscal year. Physical assets acquired that are not part of a capitalized group of assets, are expensed in the year of acquisition.

For both presentations, the accrual basis of accounting is used, which is specifically expressed as follows:

Revenue

All revenues are recorded on an accrual basis except when the accruals cannot be determined with a reasonable degree of certainty or when their estimation is impracticable. The exception is corporation income tax, which is recorded on a cash basis. Revenues from government enterprises are recognized when cash transfers are received or when dividends are declared. Designated revenues collected for British Columbia Transit, BC Transportation Financing Authority and Forest Renewal BC are included in gross revenues and then deducted as transfers to these agencies to determine net revenue.

Tax credits/offsets are accrued on the same basis as the associated tax revenues.

Expenses/Expenditures

The cost of all goods and services received during the year are recorded as expenses/expenditures of the province.

Grants (which include forgivable loans) are recorded when disbursement of the funds has been authorized. Contributions are recorded at the earlier of:

- (i) the date payment has been authorized or
- (ii) the date on which performance conditions are achieved by the recipient under provisions of a statute, contract or agreement.

Authorized contributions relating to retroactive wage settlements are recorded as expenses/expenditures of the period during which the services were provided.

Recoveries of expense/expenditure may be recorded as a credit to expenses/expenditures when:

- (i) they can be specifically identified with the expense/expenditure transactions and payment has actually been made from an appropriation
- (ii) provision for them has been approved through the Estimates and
- (iii) the expenses/expenditures to which they relate were incurred in the same fiscal year.

Tangible capital assets are expensed as acquired under the expenditure basis of reporting.

On the expense basis, acquisitions of capitalized tangible capital assets are recorded as assets and the cost is amortized over the useful life of the assets. Tangible assets acquired, not a part of a capitalized group of assets, are expensed in the year of acquisition.

Assets

Assets are economic resources controlled by government as a result of past transactions and events from which future economic benefits may be obtained.

Assets have three essential characteristics:

- (i) they embody a future benefit that involves a capacity, singly or in combination with other assets, to provide future net cash flows, or to provide services
- (ii) the government can control access to the benefit
- (iii) the transaction or event giving rise to the government's right to, or control of, the benefit has already occurred.

Assets are recorded to the extent that they represent cash and claims upon outside parties; items held for resale to outside parties; a prepaid expense, deferred charge or, tangible capital assets acquired as a result of events and transactions prior to the year-end.

In September 1995, Treasury Board approved a policy to proceed on the capitalization of tangible capital assets using a phased-in or "step-by-step" approach. The approved process is to capitalize and amortize those groups of assets for which estimated or actual values can be readily ascertained. The process of establishing the completeness and reasonableness of the records and proceeding with the capitalization of additional groups of assets is ongoing.

Gains arising from the initial valuation and capitalization of the existing tangible capital assets are accounted for as a component of accumulated equity, in a separate account titled: "Capital Adjustments."

Tangible capital assets are physical assets that are acquired, constructed or developed and:

- (i) are held for use in the production or supply of goods and services
- (ii) have useful lives extending beyond an accounting period and are intended to be used on a continuing basis
- (iii) are not intended for sale in the ordinary course of operations.

Liabilities

All liabilities are recorded to the extent that they represent claims payable to outside parties as a result of events and transactions prior to the year-end, including: probable losses on loan guarantees issued by the government; contingent liabilities when it is likely a liability exists and the amount of the liability can be reasonably determined on an individual or portfolio basis; and, unfunded pension liabilities.

Foreign Currency Translation

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are translated to Canadian dollars at the exchange rate prevailing at the year-end. Foreign currency transactions are translated at the exchange rate prevailing at the date of the transaction unless hedged by forward contracts that specify the rate of exchange. Adjustments to revenue or expense transactions arising as a result of foreign currency translation are credited or charged to operations at the time the adjustments arise. Unrealized foreign currency gains and losses on long-term, fixed-term monetary assets and liabilities are reported as deferred charges and amortized over the remaining terms of the related items on a straight-line basis. Non-monetary assets and liabilities are translated at historical rates of exchange.

Derivative Financial Instruments

The province is a party to financial instruments with off-balance sheet risk, either to hedge against the risks associated with fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates or to manage risks associated with interest rate fluctuations. Foreign currency contracts are used to convert the liability for foreign currency borrowings and associated costs into Canadian or U.S. dollars. Interest rate contracts are used to vary the amounts and periods for which interest rates on borrowings are fixed or floating.

Foreign exchange contracts include forward and future contracts, swap agreements and options. Interest rate contracts include forward rate agreements, future contracts, swap agreements and options on swaps, and deferred rate-setting agreements.

Off-balance sheet position data is given in the form of nominal principal amounts outstanding.

Concessionary Loans and Mortgages

Loans and mortgages that are made at a rate of interest below the government's borrowing rate for an equivalent term are considered concessionary. Concessionary loans and mortgages are recorded at their net present value (net of grant component) less any provision required for doubtful collection. Present value discounts are recorded as grant expenses\expenditures. Principal repayments of concessionary loans and mortgages will be applied to the reduced loan or mortgage balance (net present value) and then recorded as revenue (recovery of a grant) when received.

Valuation Allowances

Valuation allowances, such as provisions for doubtful accounts and provisions for reduction in value of investments, are included as expenses on the Statement of Operations. Corporation income tax, personal income tax and property tax are recorded net of tax credits and adjustments that are based on revised assessments of actual tax revenue of previous taxation years. Tax credits and adjustments are not considered valuation allowances.

SPECIFIC POLICIES

Accounts Payable and Accrued Liabilities

All amounts payable (including any trade payables to government organizations and enterprises) for work performed, goods supplied, services known to have been rendered or for charges incurred in accordance with the terms of a contract are recorded as part of the expenses\expenditures of the fiscal year.

Due to Other Governments

Amounts due to other governments represent liabilities incurred due to advances and loans from other governments.

Due to Crown Corporations, Agencies and Funds

Amounts due to Crown corporations, agencies and funds represent liabilities incurred, other than trade payables, which are payable in the following year.

Deferred Revenue

Deferred revenue represents amounts received or receivable prior to the year-end relating to revenue that will be earned in subsequent fiscal years.

Unfunded Pension Liabilities

Unfunded pension liabilities represent the unfunded portion of pensions to be provided to public sector employees. The percentage of the unfunded portion of certain statutory pension plans, which are funded by the province, is included. The amount is calculated using the Accrued Benefit Actuarial Cost Method. Pension fund surplus balances are not included.

Changes in the unfunded liability for pension plans which arise as a result of estimation adjustments due to experience gains and losses and changes in actuarial assumptions are amortized over the expected average remaining service life of the related employee group. Gains or losses arising as a result of plan amendments are recognized in full in the year of amendment.

Public Debt

Public debt represents direct debt obligations of the Province of British Columbia, including amounts used for government operating purposes, the Fiscal Agency Loan Program and the Warehouse Program. These obligations are recorded at principal less unamortized discounts and sinking fund balances where applicable.

The Fiscal Agency Loan Program represents debt obligations incurred for the purpose of re-lending to authorized government bodies. The amounts will then be repaid through the operations of the agencies or through amounts advanced to the agencies by the government from future appropriations.

The Warehouse Program represents debt incurred at beneficial terms to provide for anticipated future needs of government and the Fiscal Agency Loan Program. Proceeds are invested until funds are needed. Swaps may be transacted for hedging the debt issued, to ensure that funds are available at prevailing market rates of interest at the time the monies are needed.

The Matched Book Program is designed to take advantage of arbitrage opportunities available in the market where the province may borrow at a given interest rate and invest proceeds at a higher interest rate, subject to profit targets and investment quality parameters. Interest payments and interest income may be swapped to effectively lock-in the interest rate spread.

Discounts are amortized on a true constant yield basis. Unamortized discount on bonds called and refinanced is amortized over the remaining life of the old debt, or the life of the new debt, whichever is shorter.

When it has been determined that there are sufficient securities to satisfy scheduled interest and principal payments for a bond issue, the sinking fund assets are transferred to the province and are set aside in an irrevocable defeased trust account. The province legally assumes responsibility for all future interest and principal payments. The debt and the related securities used to extinguish the debt are removed from the province's Statement of Financial Position. The debt is considered extinguished for financial reporting purposes.

Cash and Temporary Investments

Cash balances are shown after deducting outstanding cheques issued prior to the year-end.

Temporary investments include short-term investments recorded at the lower of cost or market value. Temporary investments consist mainly of units in the Province of British Columbia Pooled Investment Portfolio money market funds. Units are carried at the lower of cost of acquisition adjusted by income attributed to the units, or market value.

Warehouse Program Investments

Warehouse Program investments include investments held within the Warehouse Borrowing Program. Temporary investments within this program are short-term investments recorded at the lower of cost or market value.

Accounts Receivable

All amounts receivable (including any trade receivables from government organizations and enterprises) at the year-end for work performed, goods supplied and/or services rendered are recorded as revenue or recoveries of the fiscal year. Valuation allowances are provided where collectibility is considered doubtful.

Inventories

Inventories comprise items held for resale and are recorded at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Inventories of supplies are charged to the respective programs when the cost is incurred.

Property consists of land which has been purchased, or for which development costs have been incurred, that is held for ultimate resale or lease to outside parties. It is recorded at the lower of cost or net realizable value.

Due From Other Governments

Amounts due from other governments include loans and advances outstanding at the year-end.

Investments In and Amounts Due From Crown Corporations and Agencies

Investments in and amounts due represent long-term investments and amounts due, other than trade receivables, and are recorded at cost unless significant prolonged impairment in value has occurred, in which case they are written down to recognize this loss in value. If, in periods subsequent to recognizing this impairment, the value of the investment is restored, the investment is written up to the lesser of restored value or original cost.

Loans, Advances and Other Investments

Loans and advances are recorded at cost less adjustment for any prolonged impairment in value. Other investments are recorded at the lower of cost of acquisition adjusted by attributed income, or market value.

Mortgages Receivable

Mortgages receivable are secured by real estate and are repayable over periods ranging up to thirty years. Valuation allowances are made when collectibility is considered doubtful.

Fiscal Agency Loan Program

Fiscal Agency Loan Program consists of loans made to government bodies, and cash and temporary investments set aside for the specific purpose of loaning to government bodies. Loans are recorded at maturity value less unamortized discounts and sinking fund balances. Discounts are amortized on a true constant yield basis.

These loans are made for the acquisition of capital assets to be used in the delivery of commercial services or government funded programs where the service life of the acquired asset is longer than the term of the loan.

Loans recoverable from self-supporting government enterprises are recorded as financial assets. Loans recoverable from organizations dependent on funds provided out of government appropriations are reported as a separate category of non-financial assets.

Other Assets

Other assets include prepaid program costs. Prepaid program costs represent expenditures made during the fiscal year for work to be performed, goods to be supplied, services to be rendered or contractual obligations to be fulfilled by outside parties in a subsequent fiscal year. These costs also include inventories of operating materials held in the Purchasing Commission and Queen's Printer warehouses pending distribution in a subsequent fiscal year.

Also included in Other Assets are certain deferred charges.

Work-In-Progress on Tangible Capital Assets

Work-in-progress consists of construction in progress on tangible capital assets. Costs of projects that are abandoned or indefinitely postponed are written-down to their estimated net realizable value and charged to operating expense in the period the abandonment or indefinite postponement occurs.

Tangible Capital Assets

Tangible capital assets are recorded at historical cost.

Estimated cost is used to record existing tangible capital assets when actual cost is unknown.

Tangible capital asset costs include all costs directly attributable to the acquisition, construction, development, installation or betterment of the tangible capital asset.

For these statements, government tangible capital assets include computer software, but do not include tangible assets yet to be capitalized.

Costs incurred which lengthen the remaining life of the related asset (replacements) are charged to the asset's accumulated amortization account.

A lease which transfers substantially all the benefits and risks incident to ownership of property to the province (capital lease) is recorded as an acquisition of a tangible capital asset and incursion of a liability at the inception of the lease. The lesser of the present value of the minimum lease payments and the property's fair value at the beginning of the lease is recorded as the asset cost and liability at that time.

The recorded cost, less the residual value, is amortized over the estimated useful life of the assets, on a straight-line basis.

The estimated useful lives of the more common tangible capital assets are:

Buildings .....	40 years
Vehicles .....	5 years
Computer hardware and software .....	5–10 years.

For fiscal year 1996/97 financial reporting purposes, capitalized tangible assets include only those assets which have an estimated useful life of greater than one year, and are as follows:

- (i) development or purchase of computer hardware and software computer systems with a cost of $10,000 or more
- (ii) vehicles regardless of cost
- (iii) buildings with a cost of $10,000 or more
- (iv) work-in-progress on tangible capital assets listed above.

Tangible assets not capitalized in the current reporting year include: land, heritage assets, highways and highway infrastructure, fresh water ferries and landings, tugs and barges, marine railways and dry docks, heavy machinery and equipment, dams and water management systems, forestry roads, office furniture and equipment, personal computers and peripheral hardware, buildings under $10,000, computer systems under $10,000, betterments and replacements under $10,000 and work-in-progress with an estimated end cost of less than $10,000.

The expenditure basis of accounting requires that all tangible capital assets be recorded as expenditures in the year of acquisition. All such assets were recorded at a nominal value of $1. Non-capitalized tangible assets are still recorded at the nominal $1 value for expense basis reporting.

Guaranteed Debt

Guaranteed debt represents that debt of municipalities and other local governments, private enterprises and individuals, and debt and minority interests of provincial Crown corporations, which has been explicitly guaranteed or indemnified by the government, under the authority of a statute, as to net principal or redemption provisions. Valuation allowances are made when probable losses can be reasonably estimated.

A valuation allowance provision is established to provide for the probable losses on loan guarantees issued by the government. The amount of the provision is determined by the loss experience of the guarantee program and is sufficient to meet the expected payout of the guarantee to the lender. The provision is recorded as an expense in the year the guarantee is issued and is adjusted as necessary to ensure it equals the expected payout of the guarantee.

Gains and Losses on Disposal of Tangible Capital Assets

Gains and losses from the disposal of tangible capital assets (being the difference between net disposal proceeds and the net carrying value) are accounted for each year as a component of net revenue. Gains and losses on disposal of tangible capital assets are reflected in operating results since the gain or loss is, in substance, an adjustment to amortization previously charged.

Commitments

Commitments represent future obligations of the government for capital contracts and extraordinary program commitments, to the extent of contracts and agreements in place at the year-end.

2. 1997 Change in Accounting Policy

(a) EXPLANATION OF CHANGE

Due to concerns over the ability to implement the capitalization and amortization of tangible capital assets, Treasury Board has established a policy which extends the implementation period for the capitalization of assets and restricts the broadening of assets capitalized in the 1996/97 fiscal year to those groups already recorded. Land, except for property held for resale, is removed until such time as all land holdings can be identified and historical cost determined. Reversal of land purchased in 1995/96 ($8 million) results in an increase in the expense basis deficit for that year to $355 million from $347 million as reported in the 1995/96 Public Accounts. As a result of this change, the reduction in the threshold limits for computer hardware and software and buildings, the change in the opening value of tangible capital assets for April 1, 1995 is:

	In Millions $
Land.....	(702)
Buildings ($10,000 and over) net of amortization.....	8
Computer hardware and software systems ($10,000 and over) net of amortization .....	6

In addition, purchases within the 1996/97 fiscal year and included in the expenditure totals of the appropriations have been capitalized. For fiscal 1996/97, the amount was $50 million.

<sup>2</sup>The initial unfunded pension liability of $445 million was based on an actuarial valuation of the Public Service Pension Plan for March 31, 1990, plus an estimated amount for Members of the Legislative Assembly Superannuation Plan. As a result of an actuarial valuation done for March 31, 1993, the outstanding liability was estimated at $146 million, a decrease of $299 million. The reduction of the estimated liability resulted from pension plan gains and changes in actuarial assumptions. This estimation adjustment is being amortized over the expected average remaining service life of the related employee group (12 years). For the actuarial valuation as at March 31, 1996, the outstanding surplus was estimated at $209 million. As provided for under the Pension (Public Service) Act, recommended by the actuary, and approved by the Public Service Pension Advisory Board, the surplus will be refunded over a 15 year period to the employers. The refund amount will be calculated annually and refunded quarterly. The 1996/97 refund amount is $16.9 million. The unfunded liability increased by $9.9 million as at March 31, 1997 for the Special Retirement Incentive Program. A further adjustment of $13 million is required to amortize the original unfunded liability for the Public Service Pension Plan of $140 million over the expected average remaining service life of the related employee group, (now 11 years). As a result of these adjustments, expenditures are reduced by $38 million (1996: $25 million). The unamortized portion of the estimation adjustment as at March 31, 1997 is $326 million (March 31, 1996: $224 million).

<sup>3</sup>This amount is a prorated portion (70%) of the total Municipal Superannuation Plan liability of $1,081 million. The amount recognized by the Province of British Columbia represents the portion of active plan membership made up of schools, colleges and health care employees. An actuarial valuation is performed on the Municipal Superannuation Plan every three years. The latest valuation was made as of December 31, 1994. At that valuation, net assets were $5,526 million (1991: $4,153 million), and liabilities for accrued pension benefits were $6,607 million (1991: $5,210 million), with a net deficiency of $1,081 million (1991: $1,057 million). The unamortized portion of the estimation adjustment as at December 31, 1994 is $17 million. It is being amortized over the expected average remaining service life of the related employee group (10.7 years). As a result of this adjustment, expenditures are increased by $1.6 million. The unamortized portion of the estimation adjustment as at March 31, 1997 is $15.4 million.

<sup>4</sup>An actuarial valuation is performed on the Teachers' Pension Plan every three years. The latest valuation was made as of December 31, 1993. At that valuation, net assets were $3,931 million, liabilities for accrued pension benefits were $5,709 million, resulting in a net deficiency of $1,779 million (1990: $1,937 million).

Debentures Issued to the Canada Pension Plan

Balances in Canadian dollars include $2,000 million (1996: $2,000 million) at a weighted average interest rate of 10.50%. These debentures mature at various dates from November 10, 2003 to July 10, 2012 with interest rates varying between 9.04% and 14.06%. These debentures are redeemable in whole or in part before maturity, on six months' prior notice, at the option of the Minister of Finance of Canada, subject to certain restrictions. During the year, no Canada Pension Plan debentures were issued. Under the Canada Pension Plan legislation, any significant amendment to benefits or contributions requires the approval of the legislature of two-thirds of the provinces. When Canada Pension Plan contributions exceed benefits, these excess funds are loaned to the provinces in proportion by residents of the respective provinces.

<sup>1</sup>1995/96 was the first year the province booked tangible capital assets. In 1996/97, the tangible capital assets' policy was changed in three ways: removal of land; reduction of computer hardware and software thresholds; and, reduction of building thresholds. Land purchases of $8 million during 1995/96 result in an increase in the expense basis deficit for that year to $355 million from $347 million as reported in the 1995/96 Public Accounts.

The capital adjustment account ($164 million) is made up of buildings ($54 million), computer hardware and software ($58 million), vehicles ($34 million) and work-in-progress ($18 million).

The capital adjustment account amount disclosed in the 1995/96 Public Accounts was $852 million. The capital adjustment account amount has been reduced to reflect the removal of land from the statements ($702 million) and increased to reflect the lower capitalization thresholds for computer hardware and software ($6 million) and buildings ($8 million). Refer to Note 2—1997 Change in Accounting Policy for further explanation.

<sup>2</sup>The restatement of prior periods is comprised of three adjustments. The first is due to a court decision regarding widows' Workers' Compensation benefits which increases liabilities relating to prior years' activities ($12 million). The second relates to clean-up costs for contaminated gravel pits, salt storage areas and maintenance yards, and increases liabilities relating to prior years' activities ($24 million). The third is a reversal of the College Pension Plan surplus, which increases the total unfunded pension liabilities ($32 million).

25. Contingencies and Commitments

(a) GUARANTEED DEBT

Guaranteed debt as at March 31, 1997, totalled $2,004 million (1996: $2,683 million). See Statement of Guaranteed Debt on B35 for details.

(b) CONTINGENT LIABILITIES

(i) Litigation and Other Claims

The government is a defendant in legal actions and is involved in matters such as expropriation compensation disputes and tax assessment appeals. These matters may give rise to future liabilities.

These potential liabilities are accrued when it is likely that a liability exists and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated on an individual or portfolio basis (see Note 3—Other accrued estimated liabilities).

The government has contingent liabilities in respect of the following summary of matters where the estimated or known claim is or exceeds $100,000 and is net of accrued amounts:

- claims of $15 million in expropriation disputes
- claims of $14 million regarding motor vehicle accidents
- claims of $52 million regarding tax disputes
- claims of $32 million in contract disputes
- claims of $9 million regarding negligent design, construction or maintenance of roads
- claims of $62 million regarding damages to persons or property and other miscellaneous matters.

(ii) Other Contingent Liabilities

The government also has contingent liabilities in the form of indemnities, indirect guarantees and outstanding claims. Where indemnities are for explicit quantifiable loans, the amounts are included in the Statement of Guaranteed Debt.

Under the Criminal Injury Compensation Act, the government is responsible for providing compensation to victims of crime in British Columbia, for offences described in the Act. A liability of $75 million (1996: $74 million) has been accrued based on the estimated cost of periodic future payments for claims.

The government operates and indemnifies pre-funded self-insurance programs to cover claims against school districts and colleges, hospitals and other health care agencies, and certain social service providers. A liability of $38 million (1996: $31 million) has been accrued based on the estimated ultimate cost of settling any outstanding claims.

Under current pension agreements, the government is responsible for payment of pensioners' Medical Services Plan and Extended Health Care premiums, which are recorded when due.

As at March 31, 1997, the Government of British Columbia and Alcan Aluminum Ltd had not reached a settlement on the outstanding issues relating to cancellation of the Kemano Completion Project in January 1995. On April 14, 1997, Alcan filed a writ and a statement of claim for damages. On August 5, 1997, the province and Alcan signed an agreement resolving all issues in connection with the legal action taken against the province by Alcan. The agreement will provide Alcan with a source of electric power to replace in part the potential electric power generated from the Kemano Completion Project.

(iii) Aboriginal Land Claims

The absence of treaties in British Columbia has resulted in a number of outstanding aboriginal land claims across the province. Some of these claims have resulted in litigation but most are being negotiated. The province's position on these claims is that, although the province recognizes aboriginal rights, including the inherent right of aboriginal people to self-government, the precise location, scope, and content of these rights should be established not through litigation but by means of tripartite negotiations involving the federal and provincial governments and aboriginal groups. The province anticipates that these negotiations will result in modern-day treaties defining the boundaries and nature of First Nations treaty settlement lands and rights and ensure a more stable environment for resource development in British Columbia.

The British Columbia Treaty Commission monitors the progress of treaty negotiations in British Columbia under a six stage negotiation process. The Treaty Commission began operating in December 1993. As of March 31, 1997, it had accepted 49 statements of intent to negotiate treaties from First Nations. Twenty-six of the 49 First Nations were in the Agreement in Principle stage of negotiations and 13 were in the Framework Agreement stage. The remaining 10 are in the Preparation stage.

On March 22, 1996, the provincial and federal governments reached an Agreement in Principle (AIP) with the Nisga'a in north-western British Columbia. If a final agreement is negotiated which contains the same provisions as the AIP, the Nisga'a would receive from the province $14.4 million in settlement costs over a period of years. The Nisga'a would also receive $5.75 million from the province to purchase fishing vessels and licences. An estimate of third party compensation is not available at this time. Final negotiations to reach a settlement are now in progress. A final agreement is subject to ratification by the Nisga'a, the federal and provincial governments.

There are, currently, several major cases involving Aboriginal Rights before the Courts.

The Supreme Court of Canada will hear a very significant British Columbia case involving aboriginal rights, shortly. In this case, Delgamuukw v. Her Majesty the Queen in Right of British Columbia and Attorney General of Canada, the B.C. Court of Appeal held that the Gitksan and Wet'suwet'en First Nations hold unextinguished, non-exclusive aboriginal rights over a large area of northern British Columbia. The B.C. Court of Appeal however, dismissed the claim of the appellants for damages and for a declaration that they owned and have jurisdiction over the area in question. The appeal and cross-appeal were heard by the Supreme Court of Canada on June 16 and 17, 1997, but no decision has yet been made.

Currently before the Supreme Court of British Columbia is a potentially significant case in which a First Nation claims aboriginal rights on privately held land. This case, Burns Lake Indian Band v. Brenda Fountain, was the subject of mediation last year, and some settlement discussions are under way. These have not yet been concluded, and there remains potential that the matter could go to trial. The province is named as party in this litigation. No dates for trial have yet been set.

There is also a significant case on the question of Treaty 8 First Nations entitlements in British Columbia. In McLeod Lake Band v. Her Majesty the Queen, the McLeod Lake Band is claiming that it comes within the boundary of Treaty 8 and that the province is obligated to provide, to the federal government, land pursuant to the formula established in Treaty 8.

The interpretation of the rights granted under Treaty 8 is also the subject of another case—Chief Bernie Metechaea (Halfway River First Nation) v. the Ministry of Forests and Canadian Forest Products Ltd. In this case, the Halfway River Indian Band is challenging the issuance of a cutting permit by the Ministry of Forests of the province, on the basis that the cutting activity would be an interference with their Treaty 8 hunting and trapping rights. The case was heard in January 1997. Decision was reserved and has not yet been handed down.

(c) COMMITMENTS

The government has ongoing operational commitments to fund a variety of programs for public welfare including health, education, social services, protection of persons and properties, and management of natural resources. In addition, the government normally contracts out construction or maintenance of its roads, bridges and buildings. All these ongoing operational commitments are detailed in the Estimates published yearly and are not repeated in this note. Any significant non-operating commitments (less than five years duration costing more than $50 million) and their completion costs are detailed in this note.

In accordance with an Agreement signed July 27, 1995, the province will invest $50 million annually, for ten years, beginning the 1996/97 fiscal year, with the Columbia Power Corporation (the Corporation) and the Columbia Basin Trust (the Trust), for equity investment in power projects. The disbursement of the funds is controlled by Treasury Board through approval of individual project budgets and joint venture agreements. The payments in the first five years will be made to the Corporation and the payments in the second five years will be made to the Trust, except that the Trust will also receive a payment in the fifth year equal to one-half the book value of the hydro-electric expansion rights, and the payment to the Corporation in the fifth year will be reduced by an equal amount. At March 31, 1997, the book value of the expansion rights was $102 million.

On October 15, 1993, the government declared part of the Tatshenshini/Alsek region a class "A" provincial park. On August 18, 1995, the government, Geddes Resources Limited (the registered and beneficial owner of claims in that area), and Royal Oak Mines Inc, signed a Heads of Agreement. The agreement provided for compensation for lost mineral claims of $29 million which have been paid and a conditional economic development grant (maximum $137 million over 14 years) for development of a mine at another site. The economic development component is contingent on the corporation's fulfilling requirements in the development of a mine and is recorded as a liability as the relevant conditions are met. At this time, $19 million has been accrued.

Personal income tax was reduced by $78 million (1996: $89 million) and corporation income tax was reduced by $22 million (1996: $29 million). The types of tax credits adjusting personal and corporation income tax revenues are for foreign taxes, logging taxes, venture capital, political contributions, low income rent reductions, low income tax rebates and royalty tax rebates.

Personal income tax revenue is also reduced by $87 million representing that portion of the Family Bonus Program costs which are recorded against revenue.

Additional personal and corporation income tax refunds are issued under the International Financial Business (Tax Refund) Act. Corporation income tax refunds were $3.5 million (1996: $1.5 million) and personal income tax refunds were $0.3 million (1996: $0.3 million).

Property-residential (school purpose) revenue is net of home owner grants of $453 million (1996: $438 million).

<sup>1</sup>The purpose of this table is to show the receipts and disbursements for major financing transactions related to ministry programs, or administered by ministries, in order to fully disclose the government's financial transactions and provide documentation for the Supply Act which authorizes these transactions. Financing transactions do not affect operating revenue or expenditure or change the net equity of the province. The exception would be concessionary loans. Concessionary loans are those granted at an interest rate less than market rate. The present value of the difference is considered as a grant and an expense of the period. They do, however, change the composition of the province's assets between cash and loans and other investments. As a result, they either increase or decrease the government's cash or borrowing requirements. Though listed as financing transactions, financial transfers to BC Transit, BC Transportation Financing Authority and Forest Renewal BC are not included in this schedule. These transactions are reported in the revenue portion of the Statement of Operations as transfers from revenue.

<sup>2</sup>Receipts represent only the recovery of the original advance, investment or loan principal (disbursements). Interest earned on outstanding advances, investments or loans is credited to the appropriate Special Account or to the main operating account revenue.

<sup>1</sup>Deferred compensation is amounts earned in previous years and received in the current year. This would include, for example, vacation time not taken, or other lump sum payments. Up to October 1, 1988, Deputy Ministers were able to defer up to 15% of annual compensation. Amounts received in the current year appear as deferred compensation. This does not include employee benefits.
